Bulletin No. 2024-02

Topic: Statistical Plans Modernization

ISS Contacts: iss.support@apci.org

Effective Call Year 2024, ISS is introducing refreshed Statistical Plans. Each line has been reviewed and revamped to be more accessible and legible, and to clarify certain codes. Below is a full review of any codes that have been added, removed, or changed. They are overall minimal, as the intent is to make the Statistical Plans easier than ever to use.

Each line has been arranged to match the same overall format. Each plan now consists of:

1. General Rules
2. General Rules – Premium
3. General Rules – Losses
4. Coding Tables
5. Change Log
6. Expired Codes
7. Index

The General Rules now follow single order across all plans. The language has been standardized across the board, so subscribers submitting multiple lines will find the plans familiar and easy to work with. The plans will always contain these seven items. If a section does not apply (for example, Crop Hail has no losses), we have included an intentionally blank page and marked it as such.

- > > CODING TABLES COMMON TO ALL
- > > CODING TABLES HOMEOWNERS
- > > CODING TABLES COMPREHENSIVE AND OTHER DWELLINGS
- > > CODING TABLES MOBILEHOMES
- > > CODING TABLES SNOWMOBILES
- > > CODING TABLES WATERCRAFT
- > > CODING TABLES EARTHQUAKE
- > > CODING TABLES RESIDENTIAL FLOOD

Table 1 SUBLINE CODE

Description
Residential Flood Policies

The Residential Flood subline has been added to the Personal Lines Statistical Plan with code 61, to assist subscribers with Flood data to report.

Excess Record Formats have been removed from all plans. For those subscribers still submitting excess data to us, nothing has changed. Please contact ISS or access the Archived Stat Plans page if you require the Excess record formats for Voluntary or Assigned Automobile, Businessowners, General Liability, NC Mobilehome, Personal Lines, or Professional Liability.

Coding Tables are no longer ordered alphabetically. Now they are arranged to follow the Record Format of each line, to make it easier to review details while following the record format.

Voluntary Automobile

Minimal coding changes were made. Class Plan 4 codes were removed from the Classification Codes table under 1XXX Classes – Operators Aged 65 and Over. These were not in use and should not impact subscriber reporting.

Burglary

All references to E-Commerce have been updated to Cyber/E-Commerce in the Policy Identification and Crime and Fidelity Program tables. Five codes were added to the Crime and Fidelity Program Table:

1. Telephone Toll Fraud Insuring Agreement (code 830)
2. Funds Transfer Fraud Insuring Agreement (840)
3. Computer Fraud Insuring Agreement (850)
4. Social Engineering Fraud Insuring Agreement (860)
5. Invoice Manipulation Insuring Agreement (870)

Businessowners

Video Store (code 69966) was removed as an option under Classification Codes. This should not impact subscriber reporting.

Protection Class Code, Table 11, now contains a note to report code 98 for companies that do not use Protection Class as part of their rating scheme.

Commercial Fire & Allied Lines

Protection Class Code, Table 12, now contains a note to report code 98 for companies that do not use Protection Class as part of their rating scheme.

Farmowners

Protection Class Code, Table 10, now contains a note to report code 98 for companies that do not use Protection Class as part of their rating scheme.

General Liability

Clarified Package Policies language under General Rules – Premium and removed the section on Deductible Insurance as it was repetitive. The Exposure Bases section was moved to this page to fit with the other Exposure language.

The Alaska State Exception language was removed from General Rules – Losses.

All references to E-Commerce have been updated to Cyber/E-Commerce in the Policy Identification, Special Classifications, and Insuring Agreement Code tables. Four codes were added to the Policy Identification Code Table:

1. Media Liability (Code 59)
2. Cyber Insurance (Code 57)
3. Information Security Protection (58)
4. Identify Theft/Fraud/ Recover Endorsement (60)

The entire Pre-Simplified format has been removed. Sublines from the former plan have been mapped to existing sublines from the “Simplified Plan,” or eliminated. Eliminated sublines are now to be reported with the appropriate combination of remaining sublines and classification codes.

Inland Marine

The Classification Codes table was fully reviewed and revamped. Several classification codes previously reported in New York only have now been combined with existing All States codes. The former New York only classification codes have been eliminated, however those codes may still represent valid All States classification codes. The full list is below:
